Dear Parents & Carers,

We have finished off the term in style here at Danbury Park. Class D and E had a very enjoyable and informative visit to The Mission on Monday afternoon. The children had to be very observant on their walk up to the church, I think a small group of angels at the bus stop caused quite a stir!

On Tuesday, we supported Farleigh Hospice by holding a Reindeer Dash, the children had a great time running laps and hunting for elves spelling out snowman. The younger classes were paired up with older pupils and it was fantastic to again see how kind and caring all the pupils at Danbury Park are; helping and encouraging each other - with an element of competition in some classes!

We finished the term off with Christmas parties today and a whole school sing-along this afternoon.

Merry Christmas,
Sam Jones
